DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

LOUIS RUDOLPH

Criminal No. 3:10CR85 (JBA)

April 19, 2019

ORDER MODIFYING SENTENCE PURSUANT TO THE FIRST STEP ACT

Upon motion of Defendant Louis Rudolph, pursuant to the First Step Act, Pub. L. 115-391, 132 Stat. 5194 (2018), it is ordered that the motion is granted as follows: the sentence previously imposed as to Count One, in the judgment dated January 19, 2011, is hereby reduced from 137 months of imprisonment to time served, and from 60 months of supervised release to 48 months.

Except as otherwise provided, all provisions of the judgment dated January 19, 2011 shall remain in effect.

Defendant was also sentenced in January 2011 to 120 months of imprisonment on Count Three. As of April 2019, Defendant has served 115 months of imprisonment. Defendant and the Government appear to agree that Defendant has therefore completed his required period of imprisonment. (See Govt. Resp. [Doc. # 57] at 2. (Defendant’s “service of 115 months of imprisonment has likely satisfied the sentence of imprisonment on Count 3 (assuming he has received minimal credit for good conduct, his service of 115 months has likely satisfied the 120-month sentence imposed on Count 3)”).) If so, Defendant is entitled to immediate release from custody.

The Government is directed to notify the Court by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, April 22, 2019 of any objection by the Bureau of Prisons to the parties' understanding that Defendant has satisfied his sentence of imprisonment on Count Three. If no such objection has been filed with the Court by that time, Defendant shall be immediately released from FCI Beckley in Beaver, West Virginia to return to East Hartford, Connecticut to live with his family.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
