NOTICE

On October 21, 2011, the undersigned held a conference on the record at which the plaintiff's attorney Daniel DiBartolomeo, the plaintiff and defense counsel appeared. The subject of the conference was the plaintiff's letter to the court (doc. #39) regarding his attorney.¹

During the conference, the undersigned afforded the plaintiff time to consider whether he wished to have Attorney DiBartolomeo continue to represent him.² The undersigned instructed the plaintiff to report to her by November 20, 2011 as to how he wished to proceed but has not heard from the plaintiff. However, after the conference, Judge Chatigny received an undated letter from the ¹The plaintiff complained that, among other things, Attorney DiBartolomeo had not returned his phone calls. During the hearing, Attorney DiBartolomeo stated that he had severed his employment with his law firm and assumed that counsel from his former firm was representing the plaintiff. The docket reflects that Attorney DiBartolomeo did not file a withdrawal of his appearance and that no attorney from his former law firm ever filed an appearance on behalf of the plaintiff.

²Attorney DiBartolomeo indicated that he would be happy to continue to represent the plaintiff.

plaintiff stating that his "lawyer will not release [his] file" so the plaintiff can "search[] for another lawyer." He also states that he is not equipped to proceed pro se. On November 30, 2011, Attorney DiBartolomeo filed an opposition to the defendants' motion for summary judgment.³ (Doc. #41.)

At this juncture: (1) the defendants' motion for summary judgment is ripe for decision, that is, it is ready for adjudication; and (2) Attorney DiBartolomeo has not moved to withdraw as counsel and continues to be counsel of record for the plaintiff.

The Clerk of the Court shall cause a copy of this notice to be sent to Mr. Lamar, at 107 Chipper Road, Waterbury, CT 06704 and to Attorney DiBartolomeo, at 203 Circle Drive, Bantam CT 06750.

SO ORDERED at Hartford, Connecticut this 6th day of January, 2012.
