

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT

MARIO ALEXIS and DOUGENIE ALEXIS,

Plaintiffs,

v.

PMM ENTERPRISES LLC, d/b/a EMPIRE
AUTO GROUP LLC

Defendants.

No. 3:17-cv-1622 (MPS)

RULING AND ORDER ON RENEWED MOTION FOR DAMAGES

On October 29, 2018, I granted the Plaintiffs' motion for default judgment in part, denied it in part, and denied it without prejudice in part. (ECF No. 19.) I found that the Plaintiffs had established that they were entitled to compensatory damages for the Defendant's breach of the implied warrant of merchantability, breach of an express warranty, and violation of the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act (CUTPA). I also found that the Plaintiffs were entitled to punitive damages equal to their compensatory damages under CUTPA. I concluded, however, that the Plaintiffs had not established a factual basis for awarding the amount of damages they requested and granted them leave to file additional affidavits or documentation to support their request.

The Plaintiffs have now filed a renewed motion for damages. (ECF No. 21.) They include with their motion an affidavit by Mario Alexis. (ECF No. 21-1.) He states that he paid 44 installments of $121.94 for the vehicle for a total of $5,365.36. (Id. at 2.) He also states that he paid $650.00 to have the vehicle inspected and attaches an invoice for the inspection. (Id. at 3; ECF No. 21-2.) I find that the affidavit and attachment establish that the Plaintiffs are entitled to an additional $6,015.36 in compensatory damages. Together with the damages that they

