The parties should avoid marking exhibits a, b, c, d, etc. The exhibits shall be numbered, to the extent practicable, in the order that they are likely to be offered, using exhibit tags, which can be provided by the Clerk's Office upon request. In order to coordinate exhibit identification to ensure that exhibits and exhibit numbers are not duplicated, exhibit numbers should begin as follows:

Government's exhibits:	1
Defendant's exhibits:	1000

- B. No later than June 18, 2021, counsel for the government and the defendant shall provide the Court with a list of exhibits and three copies of all exhibits (except firearms, contraband and other physical objects) that will be introduced at trial.
- C. Any diagrams, drawings or written demonstrative aids, or markings on exhibits should be drawn or marked before the witness with which they are to be used takes the stand, disclosed to opposing counsel no later than 3:00 p.m. of the court day preceding the proposed adoption, and the witness may then, barring objection, adopt the diagram, drawing, written demonstrative aid, or marking and tell the jury what it represents. 5. Evidentiary Issues

- A. Motions in limine must be filed by June 11, 2021, and any opposition thereto must be filed by June 15, 2021. At the pre-trial conference, the parties must advise the Court of any significant evidentiary problems they expect to arise. The defendant is required to be present at this hearing.
- B. If significant objections arise after the filing of motions, as required by paragraph A above, counsel shall prepare a written motion setting forth all specific objections, supported by legal memoranda citing appropriate supporting authorities. However, the Court will not consider other issues before or during the trial that are not raised by motion with accompanying legal memoranda in accordance with the deadlines listed above, absent a strong showing that counsel could not, by the exercise of due diligence, have raised the issue sooner. Counsel are advised that, where any such matters could not have been raised by the deadline in paragraph A above, counsel should bring the matter to the Court's attention as soon as counsel becomes aware of the issue.

- C. The Court intends for all trial testimony to be presented without interruption on each day of trial, excluding recesses. The Court expects to hear argument on issues that are raised in the course of the trial only in advance of the start of evidence, at the end of evidence, or at the beginning of any recesses. Arguments on such issues will not be entertained at the end of a recess or during testimony. Counsel are advised that the Court does not intend to hold bench or chambers conferences during the trial day.

- B. The parties shall submit any requests to charge and proposed jury instructions by June 18, 2021. The parties need not submit standard instructions of the type given in every criminal trial. For standard instructions used by the Court in previous trials, see United States v. Pena, 3:17-cr-0263. The Government must submit proposed instructions on the substantive offenses charged in the indictment, and the defendant must submit proposed instructions for any specific theories of defense on which he requests that the Court charge the jury.
- C. Prior to the charging conference, which the Court will schedule to occur near the end of the trial, the Court will provide the parties with a draft of the jury instructions to be read at the conclusion of evidence. Counsel shall be expected to state any objections to the jury instructions at the charging conference and to provide written memoranda citing supporting authorities and providing any alternative instruction counsel considers more appropriate in light of cited supported authorities.
